Comments

“ I remember my last visit with your mom where we ate cannolis, she told me she didn't eat much sweets but boy was she able to eat that cannoli! She showed me one of the puzzles that she was doing, & shared that she only put 1000-2000 piece puzzles together. I didn't want to share with her that I thought a 25 piece puzzle was too much for me. I really enjoyed that day with her.
Thinking of all of you at this difficult time
